The barbet is very actif when he can play or work outside, but very calm when he is at home. He's very intelligent and he needs a consequent education. Due to his intelligence, he discovers very quick the weaknesses of his boss. He is very attached to his owners and he don't like being alone. He wants to participate in all family activities.

The Von Zuiderwijnen Barbets are very calm when they are inside.

The Von Zuiderwijnen Barbets are very calm when they are inside. Marcel's wife and children process well with little

The barbet and other animals

As a barbet and other animals has no problems with other animals like other dogs, cats...